PAYMENT PLAN & STUDENT PROJECT POLICY AGREEMENT FORM

This document outlines the Payment Plan options and Student Project Policy that every student must read and agree to before admission to AFTTTI Training Institute. By signing this document, the student acknowledges understanding and acceptance of the terms herein.

SECTION 1: PAYMENT PLAN POLICY

At AFTTTI, students have two options for paying tuition fees:

Option A: Full Payment (Discounted)

- Students who pay the full semester tuition at the time of application receive a 5% discount on the total amount.
- Payment must be made in one installment upon application.

Option B: Three-Part Installment Plan

This flexible plan allows students to pay tuition in three installments as follows:

1. 50% – Payable upon application (First month of the semester)
2. 25% – Payable in the first week of the second month
3. 25% – Payable in the first week of the third (final) month of the semester

Note: Late payments beyond 7 days of the due date may attract a penalty or suspension from classes until payment is made.

SECTION 2: STUDENT PROJECT POLICY

1. Ownership

All student projects developed during study at AFTTTI are considered intellectual property of the Institute. This includes but is not limited to scripts, films, audio projects, visual works, and collaborative content.

2. Categories of Projects

- a) Class Projects – Projects assigned during course modules as part of classwork or practical sessions.
- b) Personal Projects – Projects initiated by the student but developed using the institute's equipment, guidance, or within academic time.
- c) Final Project – The mandatory graduation project required at the end of the student's study period.

3. Use and Distribution

- The Institute reserves the right to archive, screen, showcase, or publish any student projects for academic, promotional, and institutional purposes.
- Students may request permission to distribute or monetize personal and final projects externally, subject to approval from the Academic Head.

4. Consent to be photographed/filmed

- The school is an environment where photography, video and audio recording may occur without notice. By being admitted you're giving the school consent to be filmed, photographed, and recorded without compensation and such data can be used on AFTTTI's website, social media, news and advertising without payment or compensation.

SECTION 3: STUDENT AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned, confirm that I have read and understood this Payment plan Policy and the Student Project Policy provided by AFTTTI Training Institute. I agree to the terms and conditions as stated above, and commit to abide by them throughout my enrollment at the Institute.
